

South America

Countries: Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Guyana, Paraguay, Peru, Suriname, Uruguay, and Venezuela. Together, these countries have population of over 430 million people.

South America, along with Asia and Africa are part of the change that has occurred in recent decades, whereby there are now far more Christians in these countries than in the global north and west.

Psalm 117

- 1 Praise the LORD, all nations!
Extol him, all peoples!
- 2 For great is his steadfast love toward us,
and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever.
Praise the LORD!

In 2023, fifteen Christian Afghan families were settled in Brazil. "They live the church life with reverence and zeal. They are very grateful to God for everything."

"God is everything for me. God is my father and without Jesus I'm nothing," Ramos, 88 years old from the Amazon River.

In Brazil, laws that go against the Bible's teachings have been passed - "hard times are coming."

"I found my mom reading the Bible and praying... [she] asked that we pray together. In that instant, I sought God, broken and repentant..." - Augustus Nicodemus, Brazil

Please pray for those who translate the Bible. There are many Quechuan languages, and others, where the Bible has been translated or needs to be translated. "Since they are an oral culture, we want to distribute the Kichwa Bible on solar-powered radios."

Please pray for those caught in addictions. May they find new life in Christ Jesus.

Animism - the belief that there is spiritual power in things around us, and Roman Catholicism are common in South America. Pray for Christians to hold fast to God's Word. Someone has said "In Latin America, prosperity theology is not just a system of belief, but the culture in which we live."

"In the last five years (since 2014), things have been changing. More and more Christians are being awakened to the true gospel. Many unbelievers are being saved all over the region."
